

GRANITE GORGE & PRESTON FALLS NATURALIST HIKE

Spring & Fall*

Experience the secluded splendor of the Tuolumne River, downstream from the Hetch Hetchy Reservoir. Stunning Preston Falls is a hidden gem nestled in beautiful forest, away from the crowds. We will likely have the trail to ourselves as we enjoy abundant spring wildflowers such as Lupine, Indian Paintbrush, Larkspur, California Indian Pink and many others.

Our trail will take us through the narrow Granite Gorge, a beautiful section of river banked by vertical granite walls. Upon arriving at Preston Falls you will have time to eat lunch on the banks and take a swim in the Tuolumne's crisp, clear waters to cool off before the hike back.
